CYPRUS GENERAL INFORMATION

Situated at the north-eastern end of the Mediterranean basin, Cyprus is the third largest island in the region, with an area of 9,251 square kilometers (3,572 square miles).

Population in the Republic of Cyprus: 918.000 (October 2021)

Airports

Larnaca and Paphos International Airports

Requirements to enter Cyprus

A passport is required by all travelers, except for holders of:

- Laissez-Passer issued by the United Nations.
- Document issued to stateless persons and recognised refugees.

Further to the above, citizens of the European Union (EU) countries, as well as of Switzerland, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway may enter Cyprus with their national identity card, provided there is a photograph.

Languages

The official languages of the island are Greek and Turkish, whilst English is widely spoken. French, German and Russian are also spoken within the tourism industry.

Religion

Cyprus enjoys an exceedingly high level of freedom of worship. While the majority of Greek-Cypriots are Greek Orthodox Christians, other denominations are represented on the island, including Armenians, Maronites and Roman Catholics. The Turkish-Cypriot community is predominantly Muslim.

Currency

On January 01, 2008, the Republic of Cyprus introduced the Euro (€) as its official currency.

Time

Cyprus Time is Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) +2 hours.

Safety in Cyprus

Cyprus has an excellent reputation for being a safe and friendly place. You can help keep it that way. A few basic precautions can be enough to protect your belongings.

Crime in Cyprus is, comparatively, at a very low level. The Police Force is always ready to provide any assistance to persons who need help. Dial the telephone numbers below for the various police departments:

- In case of emergency: 112.
- For complaints: 1460

Average daily temperatures

It's pretty mild at this time of year, but it's a good idea to bring along a jumper or light jacket for the evenings. The average daily maximum is 23 C and the average daily minimum is 13 C.

Clothing and Activities November

This month has pleasantly warm days and cool evenings. Lunch in the open-air can still be enjoyed, and even sunbathing and swimming can too, along with most outdoor sports. The weather is ideal for autumn travel.

The clothing advised is:

- Medium-weight apparel.
- Light Woollies.
